Taking Stock Consultations for Tasmanian Dairy Farmers

Following the “Tight Management for Tough Times” seminars (August 24/25) dairy farmers have the opportunity to have an independent financial, physical and people resources assessment of their business. This consultation will come at no cost to the farmers participating.

The Taking Stock consultation will assist dairy farmers with financial and management strategies over the coming season.

Farmers can nominate a preferred consultant or advisor from the list below to undertake the Taking Stock consultation.

Taking Stock Consultants:

- Andrew Wright, Intelact
- Penny Williams
- Basil Doonan, Davey and Maynard
- Dan Huggins, Dairy Business Centre
- TIAR Dairy Centre
- Fonterra Field Officer
- No preference
